

OHL Partners with Hockley Valley Resort as Official Resort, Golf and Recreation Partner

For Immediate Release

Tuesday, July 4, 2023

Toronto, Ont. - The Ontario Hockey League (OHL) is pleased to announce a new partnership with Hockley Valley Resort as the League's Official Resort, Golf and Recreation Partner.

Located 45 minutes north of Toronto in Mono, Ont., Hockley Valley Resort is a year-round destination, featuring 108 guestrooms, 14 meeting rooms, three restaurants, an 8,000 square foot full-service spa and a 2-acre organic garden. The resort is home to an 18-hole championship golf course, as well as 16 scenic ski and snowboard runs for all levels, including upper and lower freestyle terrain park.

"Hockley Valley Resort is delighted and honoured to announce our new partnership as the Official Resort, Golf and Recreation Partner of the OHL," said Ken Murray, General Manager of Hockley Valley Resort. "This collaboration represents a thrilling opportunity for us to support the development of young athletes and contribute to the growth of one of Canada's most cherished sports. As the OHL's trusted partner, we believe in the unifying power of hockey and are dedicated to creating remarkable experiences for fans, players and their families. Together, we will embark on an extraordinary journey, combining thrilling moments on the ice with unforgettable leisure and recreational activities. We take great pride in being part of the OHL family and eagerly anticipate a successful and rewarding partnership."

Hockley Valley Resort will serve as the future location of OHL executive meetings, in addition to hosting the 2024 OHL Alumni Charity Golf Classic.

"We're thrilled to be partnering with such an outstanding destination, one that is centrally located and well-suited to host league events," said Matt Gergely, the OHL's Director of Business Operations. "Hockley Valley Resort is a tremendous, year-round, family-friendly destination."
